Children's Illustration Workshop with Neil Numberman

MYSTIC, CT – July 17, 2009 - On Saturday, August 1, Bank Square Books and Mystic Arts Center will host the talented New York artist and illustrator Neil Numberman for a children's drawing and illustration workshop at the Mystic Arts Center.

From 10 – 11:45 am, young participants ages seven and older can meet and create with Numberman, the illustrator of Joey Fly Private Eye and two upcoming graphic novels for Henry Holt Books for Young Readers.

Numberman grew up in Medford, New Jersey, and began drawing monster comics at age five. His work has been published in The New York Times, The New York Press, and Nickelodeon Magazine.

The workshop will be followed by a free book-signing from 11:45am – noon. Admission is free and opened to the public. Pre-registration is recommended.

For more information, visit www.mysticarts.org. To register, call 860-536-7601x213. The Mystic Arts Center is located at 9 Water Street in Mystic, and is a non-profit organization dedicated to supporting creativity, culture and community.
